

Policies & Procedures

1. GENERAL GUIDELINES

It is our commitment to provide an exceptional level of service for your pet, and we will use reasonable efforts to provide a consistent staff member to care for your pet(s). All Bark 'N Leash employees/contractors are highly-qualified and trained in Pet CPR and First Aid. We reserve the right to make necessary staff changes to best accommodate all Bark 'N Leash clients.

A. Sick Animals

- If you notice that your pet seems ill, please notify Bark 'N Leash immediately to suspend/cancel services to your pet. For the well-being of all animals in our care, it is our policy to not allow sick animals to attend our overnight, playgroups, or group walks. All standard cancellation policies apply.
- If we notice that your dog seems ill in our care, we will return your dog and notify you immediately. Services will be charged in full.
- In the event of an emergency where medical attention is necessary, we will employ all essential medical procedures and transport your pet to your preferred vet or the closest emergency vet hospital based upon the severity of the emergency. Owners are responsible for all medical costs for their pets.

B. Keys - Bark 'N Leash requires that you provide two house keys so we can access your home and provide service to your beloved pet(s). We cannot accept responsibility for any theft, loss, or damages to your home should you choose to leave a key outside your property or leave doors unlocked so we can access your pets.

C. Cats - We love cats too and are happy to provide vacation/pet sitting services. Please reference the rate schedule for pricing on caring for your cat while you are away.

D. Damages - Bark 'N Leash is not responsible for any damage to a client's home during pet/sitting or overnights (i.e. Electrical or plumbing problems, broken windows, and any other home related issue etc) are the responsibility of the pet owner. In the event of an emergency or should we notice any of these problems, Bark 'N Leash will contact the pet owner. Should an immediate decision be required, the pet owner authorizes Bark 'N Leash to act on their behalf and take measures to resolve the problem. Any associated costs to fix emergency home repairs are the sole responsibility of the pet owner.

E. Unattended Animals/Dog Doors - Should your animal be in our care, the pet owner retains complete responsibility for ensuring that their property is pet proofed and is a safe environment for the pet. Bark 'N Leash cannot be held responsible for damages, theft, disappearance or any other issues that arise from the owner's failure to provide a safe home environment and/or secure containment for the pet.

2. WEATHER / LAST MINUTE SERVICES

A. Weather - Services for your pet will continue regardless of the weather. However, weather and road conditions may impact service times. We will make reasonable efforts to adhere to a consistent schedule during inclement weather but may make time adjustments for the safety of our employees/contractors. If you would like your service to be modified to account for inclement weather, please notify us no less than 24 hours prior to scheduled service. The standard cancellation guidelines should be adhered to for any weather related cancellations.

B. Extreme Weather - In the case of extreme weather Bark N' Leash will use our best judgment if service should be modified or shortened due to extreme weather (power outages, temps 90+, or blizzard type conditions). In the case of a weather related emergency as declared by local government, we maintain the right to cancel or suspend our services. If we are
